1. d) another

Another means “one more” and goes before a singular noun: another cup.

2. b) other

Before a plural noun, use other with no -s: other sports, other people.

3. c) the others

The others means the rest of the group, with no noun after it: Maria was on time, the others were late.

4. d) others

Others is a pronoun meaning “other people”, so no noun follows it: what others think.

5. c) other

After any, the, my, no or some, use other, even with a singular noun: any other way.

6. a) other

After my, your, his and similar words, use other: my other bag = the bag that isn’t this one.

7. d) each other

Each other shows that both people do the same: I call my sister and she calls me.

8. c) each other’s

The possessive of each other is each other’s, with ’s on other: each other’s children.

Shoes come in twos, so the right shoe is the other one; the customer then wants a different pair, one of many in the shop: another pair.
